Mayor Ken Wright this week reiterated his thoughts on the City of Dunwoody achieving a smooth transition of government from DeKalb County.

"The City of Dunwoody faces important issues in transitioning local government from DeKalb County. Effectively managing that process requires reasonable reflection and responsible dialogue. Unfortunately, recent comments made in the media are not in keeping with that spirit of reflection and dialogue. We urge all parties - both within the City and outside the City - to refrain from incendiary comments and take a reasonable approach to city-county issues," Wright said in a statement.
